The Office for Health Equity and Inclusion leads efforts, advises on best practices, and coordinates initiatives to enhance inclusion, increase diversity, and promote equity across the institution for our patients, staff, faculty and learners.

Together with critical stakeholders, we are committed to:

- Improving the health and wellbeing of those underrepresented and underserved in health care through continuous quality improvement initiatives, health equity research, inclusion science, implementation science, outcomes research and community based participatory research.
- Creating health equity and inclusion best practices for patient care and pipeline programs for learners, faculty and staff.
- Transforming health care by creating a climate and culture that promotes inclusion, cultural sensitivity, diversity, and health equity.

The Health Equity Visiting Clerkship is a 4-week experience sponsored by the Office for Health Equity and Inclusion at the University of Michigan Health System. The aim of the clerkship is to promote the development of medical students interested in Health Equity and Inclusion careers.
